Britain Frames New Measures To Meet Fuel Crisis

NationWide Cuts In Electricity To Domestic Consumers Now Contemplated

REPORT ANOTHER DAY OF BLIZZARDS (BULLETIN)

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—The whole of the United Kingdom, England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, was brought into the crippling blanket of an electric light and power shutoff today.

Immediately following a new urgent meeting of the British cabinet, called to deal with the increasingly severe fuel shortage, the fuel ministry announced nationwide extension of the present five hour a day stoppage.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Britain's cabinet met today to frame new drastic measures to cope with the critical fuel shortage.

Despite fears that the worsening situation might have an adverse political effect on the labor government, the labor party candidate emerged victorious in the Normanton by-election in Yorkshire.

George Sylvester, laborite councillor, won out with a majority of 14,827 over J. E. Powell, Conservative.

Sylvester was opposed also by Dr. W. D. Hartley, an Independent.

Sylvester polled 19,085 votes, Powell 4,258 and Hartley 579. The laborite general election majority was 22,979.

To Hit Domestic Users

Action contemplated by the cabinet to relieve the power shortage was reported to include nationwide cuts in electricity to domestic users.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Today is Lincoln's birthday and as such was observed as a holiday by some institutions, resulting in their being closed for the day.

Among those who supply feed for birds during the winter are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Diamond, of the Bleakley block. Every day on the roof of a local butcher shop Mrs. Diamond feeds the pigeons grain which her husband buys in large bags.

Rather an unusual mid-winter sight was noted on Washington street late Tuesday afternoon when a large cabin yacht was transported through Washington street. It was an extra large boat and was transported from Detroit toward the east on a special type of huge motor truck.

Numerous streets about the city are showing the winter wear on the pavements caused by automobile chains beating against the bare pavement. In some instances the amesite covering has worn through to the original street bricks with which the streets were paved.

One of those unusual phenomena which has scientists puzzled, namely the spots which appear on the sun, were visible to the naked eye this morning. A heavy pall of smoke and fog hung over the district and the sun appeared like a huge copper ball through the smoky atmosphere. The two big spots appeared to the right and just a little below the center.

Dear Sirs: I never miss reading the Pa News column and notice times reports someone has cardinals. I am much interested in feeding the birds and wish to report that I have 10 or 12 cardinals which come and feed at regular intervals these cold stormy days beginning at 7 a.

Four Small Vessels Reported Overdue

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Coast Guard headquarters reported today that four small privately-owned vessels which left Portsmouth, Va., for St. Petersburg, Fla. on Jan. 14 are long overdue at their destination point.

The craft are the Mary, Jerry, Emolya and Ada. The Coast Guard said three persons were known to be on board one of the boats, which was towing the others.

The vessels were last seen outside Norfolk harbor on January 16.

Russia Declines To Allow Full Press And Radio Coverage Of Big Four Sessions

LIMIT PRESS TO MEAGRE NUMBER

By JOHN A. REICHMANN (U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Secretary of State George C. Marshall today was reported ready to make a major issue of the press relations between Russia and the United States.

The issue has been brought into focus recently by several developments. They are:

1. Continuing attacks of a provocative nature, frequently distorting the truth, on the United States by the Soviet press and radio propaganda broadcasts throughout the world.
2. Moscow's failure to allow full

Pipe Line Break Hits Gas Supply

Huge Break In Transmission Line Near Charleston, W. Va. Is Reported

BULLETIN

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Feb. 12.—(INS)—A huge break in the Tennessee gas and transmission pipeline north of Charleston, W. Va., today forced large scale curtailment of natural gas in eastern United States.

The pipeline is a main feeder line to eastern United States areas.

A spokesman for the Hope Natural Gas company at Clarksburg said the break was discovered when farmers a few minutes before airplanes were scheduled to take off from Clarksburg airport in search of the leak.

The spokesman said more than 300 million cubic feet of gas has been lost since the break occurred.

Fog And Smoke Envelop District

Western Pennsylvania continued recovering today from nine days of snow and cold, and at the same time grooved through fog and smoke.

Heavy fog settled over a large part of the district in the early morning hours, cutting visibility, slowing traffic and halting scheduled airline flights. The fog, however, was expected to "burn off" during the morning.

Partly cloudy weather was forecast for today, with light snow anticipated tomorrow and tomorrow night.

A mass of cold air was moving in from the northwest and the five-day forecast called for the return of cold weather Saturday and Sunday.

Five Thousand Hear Niemoeller

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Five thousand assembled churchgoers last night in Pittsburgh heard Pastor Martin Niemoeller, noted German clergyman who defied Hitler, declare that the common belief in Christ "is stronger than all the national hatred, enmity and vengeance in the world."

Niemoeller told his listeners that "wherever two of three assemble, Jesus Christ is in our midst."

His address in Pittsburgh was one of 60 on a nationwide tour and was sponsored by the Council of Churches of Christ of Allegheny county.

Battling Drift On County Road

Shown above is one of the North Beaver township snowplows waging a battle against the snow drifts that blocked the Mt. Jackson-Hillsville highway as a result of the recent storms. This highway was badly drifted and was cleared yesterday for resumption of traffic after a long battle by the workmen.

The section of road shown here is typical of many in the rural districts of the county, which confronted the state highway and township workmen in their efforts to open up traffic routes in the past few days, due to the heavy drifts.

Says Atomic Energy Now Being Used For Industrial Purposes

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 12.—(INS)—Atomic energy is being used for industrial purposes at Richland, Wash.

The disclosure was made today by C. P. Cabell, chemical engineer at the Hanford, Wash., engineer works of the General Electric Company. The firm has leased the huge plant from the federal government.

Cabell said: "The problem of atomic heat control actually was solved before the first atomic bombs were assembled, and three industrial atomic energy plans are now functioning at Hanford."

He reported that the plants are "operating very satisfactorily," but said details of their activities are not ready for public discussion yet.

At the same time he said there is no danger atomic energy will make present power plants obsolete, and forecast:

"It will be some years at best before atomic power will be available for application to industry."

Cabell spoke at a Thomas A. Edison centennial celebration in Portland.

Blockade Runner Taken By British Near Palestine

JERUSALEM, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Approximately 1,000 illegal Jewish immigrants, intercepted within sight of their goal, were in custody of British authorities today in tense Palestine.

British naval units intercepted the vessel in which the immigrants hope to slip through the blockade of the Palestine coast last night.

The blockade runner was captured less than three miles off Haifa, port in northern Palestine.

Seizure of the illegal immigrant ship coincided with the first open clash reported between members of the Irgun Zvai Leumi, Jewish underground group, and an anti-extremist labor club in Tel Aviv.

The Irgunists, who have threatened a new wave of violence in the Holy Land, reportedly attacked the clubrooms of Hashomer-Hatzair, a left-wing labor faction. After a brief skirmish, the underground members were driven off by the leftists.

New York Subway Fare Decision To Be Given Tonight

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Mayor William O'Dwyer was to go on the air tonight to broadcast the "majority" decision of the board of estimate on the question of boosting the price of a subway ride from five to ten cents.

There was little doubt in the minds of close friends of O'Dwyer that the "majority" would favor retention of the five cent fare.

In two days of public hearings O'Dwyer has outlined his position contending the boost in subway fares would not solve the city's financial problems. O'Dwyer said that in no case would the fare be raised until a public referendum on the question had been taken.

President Leads Nation In Lincoln Tributes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—President Truman led the nation today in observance of Lincoln's birthday as tributes to the Great Emancipator were voiced with reverent affection throughout the land.

The saga of "Honest Abe," born in a Kentucky log cabin and martyred as a chief executive who had guided America through the perils of a bitter civil war, was told anew.

Mr. Truman, in keeping with presidential tradition placed a wreath at the foot of the statue in the Lincoln Memorial at noon.

Lincoln, who served in the 30th Congress 100 years ago, was to be eulogized in the House by Rep. Evan Howell (R) Ill., who now represents the district the emancipator once served.

Sponsored by the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and the National Park Service, the ceremonies at the Lincoln Memorial were to include the reading of the Gettysburg address by Maj. Gen. U. S. Grant III, grandson of the leader of the Union armies.

In another ceremony at the memorial a wreath was to be placed by Argentine Ambassador Oscar Invarisovich.

The political significance of the day was marked by public appearances of ranking members of the Republican party, which hails Abraham Lincoln as one of its immortals.

Personal Income Tax Cut Appears Certain

By ARTHUR F. HERMANN (U.S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—A 20 per cent overall personal income tax cut appeared certain today as a congressional subcommittee approved a "ceiling" on government spending to provide a seven billion, 500 million dollar surplus for the 1948 fiscal year.

The special subcommittee, composed of members of the Senate and House Appropriations and Taxing committees, set a governmental spending ceiling of 21 billion, 500 million dollars for the 12 months ending June 30, 1948.

The 31 and a half billion dollar limitation set by the group represents a reduction of six billion dollars from President Truman's budget request for the period.

The subcommittee estimated government revenues during the 1948 fiscal year of 39 billion, 100 million dollars—over a billion 600 millions more than estimated by the President.

A large part of the increased income will be derived from the one

Question Man In Murder Mystery

Husband Of Woman Found Slain In Los Angeles Eliminated As Suspect In Case

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Los Angeles police today held George H. Whit, 40, for questioning in connection with the murder of Jeanne Axford French, brutally kicked to death in a sequel to the grisly Black Dahlia case.

Whitt, who gave his home as Palm Springs, Cal., was held on a technical charge of suspicion of robbery. He was arrested in a Venice boulevard bar—the same bar Mrs. French visited the night of her murder.

Police declared that Whit, his face cut and bruised, had been observed in the bar the night of the slain woman's visit.

Police announced they had virtually eliminated the husband of Mrs. French as a suspect and now believe her slayer was a man she met in the bar.

Tell Of Recovery Of Crown Jewels

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Military court records revealed today that some of the royal crown jewels stolen from the German House of Hesse were found inside mint chocolates and old sock and shaving cream tubes.

This disclosure was made as the court-martial trial of Col. Jack W. Durant, accused of masterminding the theft of the one million, 500 thousand dollar jewel collection, was resumed in the Pentagon building.

The first witness for the second day of Durant's trial was scheduled to be Mrs. Martha L. Evans, former United Nations employee and ex-secretary to the accused officer.

Mrs. Evans, strikingly pretty and demure, testified Monday that she brought part of the jewels from London to Washington at Durant's request.

United Nations May Get Problem Of Palestine

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin issued a warning today that if Arabs and Jews cannot settle the Palestine problem by themselves Britain "probably will have to submit the whole matter to the United Nations."

Bevin's warning was given during a meeting with the Arab delegation in London.

The New Castle group will return to this city late Saturday evening.

Superior Court Upholds Claims On Governorship

Henry County Superior Court Says Election By Georgia Legislature Lawful

McDONOUGH, Ga., Feb. 12.—(INS)—Herman Talmadge scored a decisive legal triumph in the Georgia governorship battle today when the Henry County Superior Court upheld his claim to the executive office.

Judge Walter Hendrix ruled that the election of Talmadge by the legislature is lawful and that the courts have no jurisdiction to intervene.

In a 2,000-word decision, Judge Hendrix dismissed the suit brought by Lieut. Gov. M. E. Thompson. Thompson sought a declaratory judgment and a mandamus order that would effect Talmadge from the governor's office and install Thompson as lawful acting governor. The case epitomized all arguments involved in the contest.

To File Appeal

Attorney General Eugene Cook, head of Thompson's legal counsel, said an immediate appeal to the state supreme court would be filed.

The decision of Judge Hendrix resulted in split opinion in the lower courts. The Floyd County superior court, at Rome, Ga., ruled last week that the Jan. 15 election of Talmadge was illegal and that Thompson is the state's acting chief executive.

Final decision in the month-long gubernatorial contest now rests with the high tribunal.

Judge Hendrix's eight-page verdict declared:

"Constructing the constitution as we do, it is clear that the general

Mounting Fight Over Lilienthal Is Developing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—A Republican demand for President Truman to withdraw the appointment of David E. Lilienthal as atomic commission chairman today complicated a mounting fight over confirmation of the nominee.

Senate Majority Whip Wherry, Neb., forecasting that the administration "will have a tough time" winning approval for the former Tennessee Valley authority chief, called on the president to withdraw the nomination.

Wherry told International News Service:

"Out of 130 million people the president should be able to find someone with the right abilities, acceptable to all of us, and in whom we could have full confidence."

Wherry said he fears "one-man domination" of the atomic program.

He labeled Lilienthal "a very determined person—so much so that he practically has a chip on his shoulder at times."

The Nebraska senator declared that Lilienthal became the single dominant force in the TVA board of directors, and said he fears he will do the same in the atomic commission.

Arthur Mometer

He wasn't much in the way of looks, he was rugged and gaunt and tall, and the social amenities of life bothered him not at all. Poverty was his boyhood chum, hard work the pat of his life, and struggle and grief were the common thing, and worry and hardship and strife. But he's held today in the minds of men as a man who was truly great, who met a problem with headlong force and always before it was late. And it seems to me now that we need a man of his strength and tenacity. We could use a Lincoln again today—the weather is thirty-three.

Appointment Of McGovern Given Senate Approval

HARRISBURG, Feb. 12.—(INS)—A step toward reinforcing operation of the state's $150,000,000 liquor monopoly today was achieved by Gov. James H. Duff with the appointment of Charles C. McGovern of Pittsburgh to the liquor control board.

The chief executive has promised to name another member to round out the three-member board. A vacancy has existed for six years.

McGovern's appointment to the $10,000 post was confirmed unanimously by the Senate yesterday less than three hours before the death of his predecessor, W. Seagriff Stuart, of Carlisle, whose resignation was announced earlier by Duff.

The governor's move ended virtual one-man control of the commonwealth's liquor business by Chairman Frederick T. Gelder and was expected to spike charges of mismanagement. Stuart had been ill eight months.

assembly had the right to decide when there was no election by the people.

"It did decide that on account of the death of the governor-elect there had been no election by the people."

"In our opinion, the constitution then puts the duty and responsibility on it to elect and install a governor."

"This duty and responsibility, it decided as it saw fit. When it acts with any authority, the courts cannot interfere."

Judge Hendrix asserted that the entire question can be solved with one simple interrogatory, as follows:

"When Governor-elect Eugene Talmadge died, did that give Governor Ellis Arnall another four-year term?"

Judge Hendrix then proceeded to base his ruling upon that question.

PERSONAL INCOME TAX CUT APPEARS CERTAIN

billions, 130 million dollars to be realized through continuation of the high wartime excise taxes on liquors, furs, jewelry and other "luxury" items.

Did Not Compute Revenue

Mr. Truman, while asking for continuance of the wartime excises, did not compute the added revenue in his budget estimates.

If the spending ceilings are approved by the full membership of the Senate and House committees, and by the Senate and House members, the surplus could be used to meet the cost of the tax reduction proposal, estimated at three billion, 500 million dollars.

The remainder of the surplus—more than four billion dollars—would be available to reduce the war-swollen national debt.

The huge cut in governmental spending contemplated a two billion, 250 million dollar reduction in funds available to the armed services.

Of this amount, one billion would be cut from Army spending, 500 million from the Navy, and 500 million from rivers and harbors and other so-called "civil functions" projects.

PIPE LINE BREAK HITS GAS SUPPLY

early today. It seriously affects Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York state and West Virginia as well as natural gas using residents and firms along the Atlantic seaboard.

Repair crews were sent into the rugged mountain country in below freezing weather. The company spokesman said the break was due to the recent cold snap.

In Pittsburgh, the Peoples Natural Gas company cut off all gas supplies to industrial plants because of the break. The Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., of Pittsburgh, expects to take similar action within hours.

The break occurred less than 24 hours after the two companies restored the use of gas to industrial consumers.

The original restrictions which went into effect Monday involved only half of England and Wales.

Plans also were understood to be under way to mobilize transport on a near war-time basis for the movement of coal. This action may be taken regardless of the effect on passenger train schedules.

The cabinet convened as a ninth consecutive day of blizzard conditions in the north and a continuing freeze-up in the south further disrupted British transport. The severe winter condition blocked movement of much-needed coal to the paralyzed industrial belt.

Naval escorts were ordered to stand by in event the colliers need navigational aid or other help.

To Institute Daylight Saving

Some quarters predicted a bill may be rushed by the government to institute daylight saving time as early as next month to provide some measures of relief to business.

Reliable sources meanwhile denied that the government plans to abandon its bill to nationalize electricity because of the crisis.

The first financial repercussions resulted in a wave of selling which knocked off a value of 160 million dollars from government securities.

A government statement reviewing the whole situation is expected to be made later tonight.

In some quarters it was openly predicted that announcement would be made of extension of the electricity blackout to all of the country.

Thirty-eight coal ships, laden with 70,000 tons of coal, took advantage of a very slight abatement in the storms at sea. The vessels sailed from Tyne ports for the southeast, while 43 others hoped for a get-away later in the day.

Not Much Relief

These sea-borne fuel supplies were not expected to relieve the electricity curtailment, but will help maintain the dangerously-waning domestic gas pressure.

These observers also said that the economic crisis will have its effect on the labor government's budgetary prospects, and possible even necessitate some changes in British foreign policy.

One hundred and twenty of the nation's most important trunk railroads—over which the coal should move—were absolutely impassable. Many others were so banked with snow that only single line traffic could negotiate the routes, and this very painstakingly.

Army, Navy and A. A. F. personnel—fighting a new "battle of Britain"—made scant progress in the campaign to prevent extension of the country's industrial paralysis, which is directly attributable to the fuel shortage.

Huge Snowdrifts Hamper

Some coal was being shifted over the rails, but only under the most difficult conditions. The trucks of the trains continually had to be dug out of huge snowdrifts.

Fresh snowstorms swept Scotland, while a heavy fall at Rylandside coal ports continued to tie up 100 storm-bound coaling vessels.

Troops were seeking to clear the paths for coal-trains by means of specially-equipped tanks, while naval escort vessels shepherd ten colliers which left Tyne for London during the early morning hours.

The escorts had to guide the ships through fog and tempestuous seas, and further act as ice-breakers necessary.

Life in London steadily was becoming sharper. A beer and cigarette famine already has hit the capital, and brewers and manufacturers announced that no more of these items are being dispatched to saloons or cigar stores.

Many commodities and most clothing apparel are becoming scarce, too, and candles—used widely during the five-hour daily cut in power to homes—are becoming rare as butter.

ARRESTED AFTER QUARREL

James McConaghy, 906 Court street, was to be charged with carrying concealed weapons today, according to Police Chief Robert D. Hanna, it having been alleged that he lacerated a finger of Harold Shortzberger, 1714 Hamilton street, in a quarrel at Mill and East Washington street at 1:05 a. m. today.

He was arrested upon information of witnesses by Policeman Fleeger.

MOSCOW PARLEY PRESS COVERAGE TO BE CURTAILED

coverage of the forthcoming Moscow meeting of the "Big Four" foreign ministers by press and radio.

3. The suggestion made by Assistant Secretary of State William Benton that the United States might enter into bilateral agreements for the free exchange of information with other countries.

Aroused By Attacks

The Soviet attacks on the United States are known to arouse Marshall's seldom known anger. Observers were convinced he would initiate a counter-offensive at the first opportunity.

Bent's suggestion of bilateral agreements was believed aimed largely at Russia. He has been fighting a tough and largely losing battle on getting the American viewpoint before the peoples behind the "Iron Curtain." Efforts to make headway in Russia itself have been even more disheartening.

Might Hit Activities Here

If the idea of bilateral agreements should be adopted there might be a closing down on Russian reportorial activities in the United States. Hitherto, the Russian press and radio have had free access to coverage in the United States.

In some cases Soviet correspondents have been encouraged to come to this country with freedom to travel as they please. Three outstanding journalists brought in last year returned to Russia to write only vituperative articles about the United States.

Recent Development

The Russian decision to limit the number of correspondents to be allowed into Moscow for the foreign ministers meeting was only recently transmitted to the state department.

While 73 press and radio correspondents have applied to attend the March 10 meeting, only 20 are to be admitted. The Russians maintain that the number is limited by the available accommodations in the Soviet capital.

However, it was recalled that Soviet Foreign Minister Vyacheslav Molotov had promised Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, when the Moscow meeting was decided on, that there should be the same free press coverage there as was at the New York meeting of the "Big Four."

A joint committee representing the state department and Washington correspondents' organizations recommended to Marshall a list of 52 applicants for visas to cover the foreign ministers conference.

As Gomer Lewis, Miss Allen's fiancé, is a barber, a barber pole was used in the centerpiece of flowers on the dining room table. Each place was marked with a miniature barber pole attached to a nut cup, while a corsage of red, white and blue flowers, a gift of the hostess, was also presented to the honoree.

Using a color scheme of red and white, Miss Gill, aided by her mother, Mrs. George Gill, and grandmother, Mrs. Charles C. Lees, served a tasty lunch. Colorful spring flowers decorated the downstairs rooms of the Gill home.

After serving, a booklet, containing rhymes, written by the hostess, was given the bride-elect, telling her where to find a shower of miscellaneous gifts.

Miss Allen, daughter of Mrs. Lee Allen and the late Mr. Allen, 509 Wildwood avenue, will become the bride of Gomer Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Griff Lewis, 1204 East Washington street, at an open church ceremony to be performed Tuesday evening, March 11, at 7:30 o'clock in Highland U. P. church.

Officers elected during the business meeting, with Mrs. Stuart Mardis presiding, were: president, Mrs. Delbert Fletcher; vice president, Mrs. Stuart Mardis; secretary, Miss Lena Mae McConnell; and treasurer, Miss Olive Webb.

Installation of officers will take place at the annual dinner of the auxiliary to take place March 11. Arrangements are in charge of the social committee.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by MARQUIS CHILDS

See Marked Change In President Truman

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Visitors to the White House continue to marvel over the transformation that has occurred in scarcely more than three months. The president today is in almost every respect a different man from the worried, unhappy prisoner of last October who kept talking about his impossible job.

One incidental result of this transformation is the speech which Democratic Chairman Robert Hannegan recently made in New York. Both Hannegan and the White House could say quite honestly that there was no collusion in that speech.

Mr. Truman and the political chief of his party understand each other so well that no go-ahead signal from the White House was necessary to prepare for the president's nomination in 1948. When Hannegan returned from his long rest cure in Florida, the president began by saying that if Hannegan's health possibly permitted, he would have to stay on in his dual capacity as party chairman and postmaster general. I was a new and authoritative commander who spoke to his lieutenant.

Organization Plan
To begin with, Mr. Truman feels that he has organized the executive branch of the government in such a way that the line of responsibility is now unmistakably clear. In his oval office, to the right of his desk is a large handsome chart. At the slightest hint of an invitation, or with none at all, he explains this chart to visitors.

It shows the president's desk with diminishing layers of authority branching away from it. Each man in the chain knows where to report, as the president tells it, as the chain of authority is not broken by the internal jealousies and rivalries which marked the Roosevelt administration.

Of this last the president makes an important point. He believes that, one result of the harmony now prevailing in his official family has been to stop the feuding that was often echoed in stories leaked to newspapers. Nothing infuriates the president so much as the familiar Washington truck of "leaking" a story that might damage a rival.

At a recent off-the-record Monday cabinet luncheon, the president looked around the table with a smile of benign good-will. Here we are, he said, all eleven of us together for the first time, and it is a most happy occasion. This was the first of these weekly luncheons at which new Secretary of State George C. Marshall was present, and it also marked the return of Hannegan from Florida.

Contributes To Harmony
The fact that Marshall had replaced James F. Byrnes in the No. 1 cabinet post has contributed to the harmony that prevails today in the White House. Between Byrnes and the president a good enough working relationship existed, but there was always a certain constraint between them which, on Byrnes' part, was reflected in a kind of condescension toward the president. It must, after all, have been very hard for the former secretary to overlook the fact that, if it had not been for the tides of political fortune at the 1944 Chicago convention, he himself would have been sitting in the chief executive's chair.

Mr. Truman no longer talks about how he did not want the office. In fact, he seems to have adopted as his own the old axiom that the way to run for office—whether for election or re-election—is not to run. The probability is that Hannegan will have to go away again for a second rest cure, to relieve the severe hypertension that threatened one time to force his retirement from one or both of the two jobs he holds. One of his first assignments as Democratic national chairman, when he is again in the job for keeps, will be to begin cementing delegates for the president for 1948. While in a sense this will be a routine procedure, Chairman Hannegan is determined to leave nothing to chance.

The day in which President Truman's popularity has fluctuated is an interesting phenomenon. In July, 1945, in the aftermath of victory, the Gallup poll showed that 87 percent approved him and only three percent disapproved. For last October, the two figures were 32 percent and 53 percent. Today they are 48 and 39 percent.

As Gallup Editor William A. Lydgate points out in the New York Times, "The Democratic hold on the country had begun to slip long before the war. In 1940, Roosevelt polled only 55 percent of the popular vote as compared with 62 percent in 1936. It was the war that sustained Roosevelt in office.

In any reckoning looking toward 1948, the Democrats' long tenure in office must be considered. Mr. Truman is the inheritor of the past in more ways than one.

There are reports that Paul McNutt is returning from the Philippines about March 15 . . . arriving just in time for the Democratic sweepstakes.

Older readers will remember Mr. McNutt as the man who started to run for nomination in 1940 and wound up in the Pacific addressing palm trees.

Paul could have almost any job he wanted except the nomination . . . he was a hot candidate in a cool year.

But the weather has changed and it might be more to his liking now if he's interested . . . if he isn't he must have changed.

If he runs, remember I told you first. If he doesn't . . . forget it. I shall try to do the same.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

There are some things I don't understand.

We have all read a lot about all the poverty in England; how the people over there haven't enough to eat and how they go cold and hungry, yet—

—the University of London has just appropriated $3,200 to help Professor John Zachary Young to learn the intelligence quotient of the octopus.

The experiments we are told, may last three years and will be conducted in the Naples Aquarium where there is one of the finest collections of octopi (or octopuses, if you prefer) in the world.

Professor Young is fully convinced that his $3,200 pupils can acquire knowledge and he and his assistant will see how much they can be taught.

I can't see, for the life of me, why anybody should have the slightest interest in the intelligence quotient of an octopus, unless he intends to enter him in a circus and make some money out of an octopus act.

However, my wife always accuses me of being entirely too supercilious about some of the experiments and discoveries of science, and so I shall try to be a little more respectful of scientists in general and octopus scientists in particular.

Nevertheless, I can't help but wonder why scientists often are so impractical and detached.

For instance, just this morning I received a form letter signed by Albert Einstein.

The salutation is "Dear Friend", although I never had the honor of meeting Professor Einstein.

The letterhead is "Emergency Committee of Atomic Scientists, Inc., Princeton, N. J." and it asks me to contribute to a $1,000,000 fund which is urgently needed "to carry to our fellow citizens an understanding of the simple facts of atomic energy and its implications for society."

With all due respect for Professor Einstein and my wife, I shall not contribute one nickel to that project.

Every newspaper in America has printed hundreds of columns of atomic energy. Every magazine has had articles on it. There have been lectures and radio talks, and atomic energy and its dangers are as familiar to every halfway intelligent human being as they could possibly be.

If there is anyone who does not know the terrible potentialities of atomic energy as yet, he belongs in a lunatic asylum.

A million dollars for that sort of stuff!

Imagine, Professor Einstein, how much practical good could be done with that amount of money. Imagine the number of people that could be fed and clothed and warmed with a million dollars!

I started to make fun of the $3,200 appropriation for the octopus thing. Now that I received that letter from Professor Einstein, I wonder which of the two projects is the more foolish.

The Lawrence County Chapter of the National Home and Property Owners Foundation will hold their regular monthly meeting on the 20th of February . . . this meeting will be open to the public . . . that is all peoples who own property are invited to attend. And everyone who is interested in where the tax dollar goes . . . and what possibilities there is for a reduction in property tax should be concerned with the workings of the local chapter . . . which is directly affiliated with the national foundation. Thousands of property owners have joined hands to study the tax bills . . . to bring important arguments to local, state and national governing agencies in regard to tax rates.

It is not the intention to belittle any group or individuals . . . but to stimulate good concrete thinking on a topic that should be of interest to every taxpayer in the city. More pertinent data on this topic will be explained in a day or two.

Great Game Of Politics

Another Good Man In Public Office

MENTION has been made in this space several times of a favored form of disparaging the Truman Administration adopted by the more or less intellectual insiders of the former regime who now find themselves uncomfortably distant from the White House, personally and politically.

EVIDENCE of their discontent is found in the persistent belittlement of Mr. Truman, personally, and the wide circulation given to the theory that he is unable to get good men to accept important posts under him or to keep those good men whom he found in high positions when he became President. They harp on Allen, Hannegan and Vaughan, but ignore completely Forrestal, Patterson, Symington, Harriman, Gardner (whose sudden death was generally deplored), Wiggins, Brown, Ross and Clifford.

SECRETARY of the Navy Forrestal and Secretary of War Patterson were inherited by Mr. Truman, but the others were brought in by him and they by no means sustain the contention that the personnel of the Government service has deteriorated and we are being ruled by a lot of Missouri mediocrities. To make this notion even reasonably plausible it is necessary also to ignore the appointment of General Marshall as Secretary of State and his prompt acceptance thereof. Certainly, all these "good men" and in might also be mentioned that all of them are making "financial sacrifices" to serve in this Administration.

AND now President Truman has made it more difficult for these critics who insist on the "low-level" idea by appointing a very good man as solicitor general of the United States—Mr. Philip B. Perlman, of Maryland. Mr. Perlman is an able and successful lawyer who is making a considerable "financial sacrifice" to take this position. He is a man of intelligence, character and experience. He is not a politician, though he has been active in Democratic politics. He has filled a number of appointive public offices, including that of Secretary of State of Maryland under the late Governor Ritchie, whose intimate friend he was, but has never sought an elective office for himself.

HE is interested in art and early American architecture as well as the law, and rides horses without falling off. He used to play tennis, though not very well. He is a bachelor with no known bad habits. The post to which he has been named, next to the Attorney Generalship and the Supreme Court, is the highest a lawyer can hold in this country. It has been filled by a long line of distinguished lawyers, some of whom have been promoted to the Supreme Court. It is the most important Federal post to which any Marylander has been appointed in 40 years—since the late Charles J. Bonaparte was made Secretary of the Navy by Theodore Roosevelt. In addition to his other equipment, probably the best reason for believing Mr. Perlman will make a good solicitor general is that an outstanding characteristic of his nature is industry. He really works.

AT ANY rate, his selection makes the claim that it is impossible to get good men to enter this Administration seem even sillier than before. The truth is that considering the nature of the reaction after the war, Mr. Truman has done exceedingly well in the matter of appointments. He has no more of which to be ashamed than his predecessor, and just as many of which to be proud. Take it all the way through, and the personnel in this Administration compares favorably with that of the prewar period of the government machine was immensely expanded and all a President had to do to bring anyone he wanted to Washington was to ask, is obviously unfair.

EVENT OF THE WEEK

BEARDSLEY WORTLE WAS CAUGHT IN THE SUDDEN FREEZE FOLLOWING A COLD RAIN

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S PET PIG

When Abe Lincoln was about six years old, a neighbor gave to Abe a tiny pig which Abe raised as a pet. Later, in spite of Abe's attempt to hide the pig in the woods, his father slaughtered this pig. To quote from the alleged words of Lincoln to Frederick C. Fiehart: "There was talk about the house of the hog being fat enough to kill. At the table I heard father saying he was going to kill the hog the next day. My heart got as heavy as lead."

"The next morning father had a barrel of water ready and was heating the stones to be thrown into it to make hot water for the scalding and I slipped out and took my pet with me to the forest."

Was Severely Scolded
"On returning I was severely scolded. After a restless night, I arose early and went to get my pig for another day's hiding, but found that father had arisen before me and fastened my pet in the pen. I knew then all hope was gone. I did not eat any breakfast but started for the woods. I had not gone far when I heard the pig squeal, and knowing what it meant, I ran as fast as I could to get away from the sound."

"Being quite hungry, at noon I started for home. Reaching the edge of the clearing, I saw the hog, dressed, hanging from a pole near the house, and I began to blubber. I could not stand it and went back into the woods again, where I found some nuts that I started my appetite till night, when I returned home. They never could get me to take a bit of meat, neither tenderloin, nor ribs, nor sausage, nor sausage. And months after, when the cured ham came to the table, it made me sad and sick even to look at it."

Many farm children today have heartaches, not unlike those of Abe Lincoln, had over pets that are sold or slaughtered. Parents have sold or slaughtered, and knowing what it meant, I ran as fast as I could to get away from the sound. "Being quite hungry, at noon I started for home. Reaching the edge of the clearing, I saw the hog, dressed, hanging from a pole near the house, and I began to blubber. I could not stand it and went back into the woods again, where I found some nuts that I started my appetite till night, when I returned home. They never could get me to take a bit of meat, neither tenderloin, nor ribs, nor sausage, nor sausage. And months after, when the cured ham came to the table, it made me sad and sick even to look at it."

Views Of The News

By J. S. OESTREICHER
(N. S. Foreign Editor)

For the first time since Neville Chamberlain shouted "peace in our time" only to be echoed by a shower of German bombs, the patience of Britain's people showed signs of wearing thin today.

And by a quirk of politics, combined with exceedingly rough treatment by the elements, the British had to vent their anger on a socialist government of their own choosing.

The crisis brought about by Britain's critical fuel shortage, with its attendant cuts in electric light and power, transportation tangles and a thousandfold other discomforts had its inevitable results.

Londoners lost their characteristic goodwill, their innate ability to grumble with a smile, their ability to crack frosty jokes at their own expense, their immense capacity for "taking it on the chin."

When the First World War brought its German dirigibles to London and the second unleashed its cascade of bombs, the people of London rushed out into the streets to shake their fists and curse the "Heinies" or the "Jeries" with blue streams of invective that were classic to hear.

Against his own duly elective government, the Englishman can not so express himself. There is too much respect for authority; too much inherent repulsion against anything that smacks of anarchy.

Yet developments on every hand make it more than amply apparent the Englishman is angry.

He does not understand how the government could have let conditions reach such a desperate stage without having done something about it earlier.

He likes his own "flitter" on the horses or the dog-track; but he cannot fathom why the labor cabinet, without taking the nation into its confidence, had gambled on nice warm winter weather especially as the European continent weeks ago began to experience one of the most frigid periods in recent history.

People who always have lived in the United States and who are accustomed by now to the use of oil as a major productive of light and power find it difficult to understand how completely, despairingly dependent the United Kingdom is upon coal.

They forget too that many of Britain's mines have been worked almost to extinction; that the pits were scraped far too deep in the war years to supply the armies, ships and the European underground.

Plus the fact that old miners are older than ever, do not turn out as much as in their youth, and that their sons no longer care to crouch up in the subterranean tradition.

The crisis in Britain today is one that is enormously difficult to assess, either at home or from the viewpoint of a foreigner. Outstanding and above all is that the average Englishman is unhappy, disgruntled and incredulous. And it takes much to disturb that island's equanimity.

Peace—Or Is It?

The diplomats have signed the treaties of peace with all of our former enemy nations save Germany and Japan. We are at peace with those nations and yet we cannot help but wonder how permanent, how lasting the peace is or will be.

Italy is infuriated at losing some of her territory to Yugoslavia, and also at losing her colonial possessions. Yugoslavia thinks she should have had more Italian territory and other nations will think the reparations are not sufficient.

Meantime Italy needs food and machinery, Greece is in distressful shape, Palestine is an armed camp, Britain seems tottering upon the abyss of disaster, Yugoslavia is a Communist satellite, France cannot seem to make up her mind as to what form of government she wants and Germany like Gaul is divided into three parts.

More and more Russia expands her sphere of influence, both in the east and the west, China is torn by warring factions, and Japan is struggling to organize under a democratic form of government. In all the world there seems to be but two nations on firm ground, the United States of America and Russia.

We can criticize Russia as we will for her form of government but Russia is on the move. As Americans it is time we realized that our own salvation lies within ourselves. We have no strong allies at the present time and if the truly democratic way of life is to survive in the world, the United States must lead the way.

If we insist upon internecine warfare among ourselves, if we fail to solve our own problems by co-operation and common sense then the time is not too far away when the United States of America may face a struggle for her very existence.

We're at the cross roads. The direction we take is our own choosing.

Europe's Cold Wave

The caprices of the weather play a large role in human affairs. If the German army had not run into the coldest winter in a hundred years when it was storming the gates of Moscow early in World War II, the Russian capital might have fallen and Russian morale been shattered beyond repair.

In the overcrowded cities and towns of India and China the amount of rain which falls in a single summer may determine whether millions live or die. And today, in Europe, the weather is once more shaping the destiny of a continent.

This time, unhappily, the weather is not on humanity's side. In a year when millions of people lack adequate housing, food, fuel or clothing, the winter has been cruel. One cold wave after another has swept across northern and central European countries. North Britain has been hit by the worst weather in fifty years.

Whether Britain's fuel crisis was caused by socialization of the mines by the labor government or by some other circumstance, the reason for the dilemma may be lost sight of in the reverberations.

When unusual weather strikes in this country, it may cause a great deal of trouble and cost a few lives. But in countries still devastated by the war, the suffering is intense. Snow and ice snarl up transport facilities barely sufficient at best, to meet the most essential needs. In Britain alone the coal famine has forced hundreds of thousands of workmen into idleness. In Berlin 140,000 persons are too ill to report for work. In The Netherlands badly needed coal shipments lie icebound in frozen canals.

For Americans the weather may be a subject for idle conversation. In other parts of the world it is synonymous with fate.

Family In Danger

The family system is so firmly rooted in modern civilization that warnings that it is in danger of disappearing may not be taken seriously. The man who makes such predictions is more likely than not to be regarded as a crackpot and alarmist. Yet there are at least two occasions in recorded history when the family system broke up for a protracted period—once in ancient Greece and again in ancient Rome.

This adds weight to the warnings of Dr. Carle Clark Zimmerman, professor of sociology at Harvard University. Some of the things which Dr. Zimmerman has observed are visible to anyone. The rising trend of divorce has been a subject of discussion for a long time and so, to a lesser extent, has been the fact that the family is no longer as tight and as cohesive a unit as it was a half-century ago.

But these developments, serious enough in themselves, are still more alarming when viewed in the light of past history, as Dr. Zimmerman points out. The trends already in motion, may result in the complete breakup of the family system of today unless they are halted in time. What has happened before can happen again unless a positive effort is made to stop it.

Dr. Zimmerman suggests a program of mass moral education through various advertising media. Whether that would effectively reverse the trend is debatable. But it might at least make people recognize the danger to the basic unit of western civilization, and this is the first step toward dealing with it.

Usually the smaller and less important a man is the more important he displays.

THOSE BROADCAST BLUES

The first receiver Z. D. ever owned gave out with noises that sounded like someone being strangled while the coys were kicking down the door.

His present set emits exactly the same sounds. This is due to the slew of murder mysteries that are gumming up air waves.

In the old days Dummy was a "D. X." or distance fan. He would sit up all night listening to egg-frying in hopes of getting a station two countries away.

Catching a broadcast from a spot 100 miles distance made him feel like a Twentieth Century Christopher Columbus.

Zadok now recalls with embarrassment how naïvely delighted he was when he first tuned in Washington and heard a political speech.

The other day Dummy entered a contest for suggestions on "How to Get More Pleasure Out of Your Radio." His letter didn't win the prize so he feels cheated. His was a three-word contribution: "Turn it off!"

Her flowers were yellow roses and stephanotis.

John Kicos of Duquesne served his cousin as best man.

A breakfast was served for friends and relatives at the home of the bride's parents, followed by a reception in the afternoon. After a honeymoon in Cleveland and Chicago, the newlyweds will reside in their newly furnished apartment on Jackson avenue.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Negotiations On For Purchase Of 100 Liberty Ships

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—A State department spokesman revealed today that private interests in the United Kingdom are negotiating for the purchase of one hundred liberty ships now on charter to the British.

He said that negotiations are also underway for the purchase of 42 other faster types of vessels such as Victory ships.

Details have not yet been agreed upon, he said, but the transaction is expected to involve about 100 million dollars. All sales will be made under the 1946 ship sales act and on a strictly cash basis.

At present Britain has under charter 307 U. S. owner ships, of which 229 are Liberties. The others are not commercial types.

The faster types involved in the purported negotiations are not under charter. It was assumed that since the negotiations are being handled by private British interests the purchase money will not come out of the three billion, 300 million dollar U. S. loan to Britain.

OVERCOMING SHYNESS

"When I am with a few friends I know well, I am at ease conversationally; but let strangers come in and immediately I shut up like a clam and can't think of a thing to say. It is, I suppose a form of self-consciousness, for I know they aren't my mental superiors. We are all of ordinary intelligence with equal knowledge of world events, etc. Can you give me any help in overcoming my tongue-tied condition?"

Answer: The fact that you admit these people who frighten you are not your mental superiors should cure you of your tongue-tied condition.

You alone can overcome your handicap by telling yourself that you are silly and childish. Self-conscious people, who sit silently by, usually give the impression of being either dumb or indifferently aloof.

Speak up! Contribute your share of the conversation. You owe your hostess that much.

To overcome your shyness, you may find it helpful to keep a notebook of conversational tidbits. Jot down in it some amusing stories, incidents or repartee worth repeating during a lull when you realize you should say something.

Contribute at least one or two stories during an evening. Before going out, glance through your notebook and select a few things to talk about so that you will have something prepared in case of emergency.

Those who have no difficulty in thinking of things to say might think this very odd; but it is really an excellent idea for those who get tongue-tied in the presence of strangers.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

Thiel College To Receive Some U. S. Surplus Furniture

By ARTHUR WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12.—Thiel college will receive from the Federal government surplus furniture and equipment to help accommodate an anticipated student body totaling 560, including 315 veterans.

Major General Philip B. Fleming, Federal works administrator, has approved the application by the college for the desired furniture and equipment.

MOTHERS AND DENTISTS

Teeth are very important parts of the body. They have a lot to do with keeping us in good condition.

Dentists and mothers can help in the care of children's teeth.

The care of a baby is pretty well started before it is born. The diet of the mother is very important in the formation of these baby teeth.

She should have plenty of milk and fresh vegetables. She should be in the open sunshine at noon time as much as possible.

She has two sets of teeth to care for. The dentist can take care of her own teeth but she is largely responsible for baby's teeth.

In later years she will be glad that she took the trouble to eat a proper diet.

THE WORLD AND

from the dictatorial Communism in Yugoslavia.

At bottom of all the agitation against Franco lie three purposes on the part of Franco's chief critics. First, of course, is Russia's desire for a friendly Communist government which will give her access to Gibraltar, blocking Britain's gate to the Mediterranean. Second, is the ambition of certain other powers to acquire what is left of Spain's colonies. Third, is the hope that forcible intervention will bring on a civil war, providing an excuse for occupation and eventual seizure of Spain itself.

An ironic feature of the anti-Franco campaign in the United Nations is that it has been led, naturally, chiefly by Poland, which doubtless is suffering far more under Soviet dictatorship than the people of Spain are suffering under Franco. If peace, self-government and the welfare of the masses were matters of real concern, it would seem that the same attitude should be held toward Tito as toward Franco. In any event, it is not the internal affairs of any government. We tried that in Argentina a little while ago and didn't do so well.

Concert Debut Of Nimitz's Spaniel Howling Success

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Music critics agree that the concert debut Tuesday of Freckles Nimitz, yellow and white cocker spaniel of Fleet Admiral and Mrs. Chester W. Nimitz, was a howling success.

Freckles "sang" before an audience of 200 prominent Washingtonians at a special concert for the benefit of the National Symphony Orchestra fund.

While Mrs. Nimitz played his accompaniment, the talented canine howled the tune of "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms."

A salvo of applause greeted the cocker's performance and Freckles obliged with an encore—the same tune.

Experts in the audience asserted that Freckles' tone, range, and stage presence left nothing to be desired.

Mrs. Nimitz, who introduced the prodigy, explained that "Freckles is a dog that takes naturally to music." She said "he'd much rather stay home and practice singing than romp and play with other dogs."

Although the benefit marked his first appearance in concert, Freckles is an old hand at singing. He used to howl recordings for the Admiral when Nimitz, now chief of naval operations, was at sea during the war.

Upon conclusion of the performance in the auditorium of the fashionable Miss Libbey's school, Freckles took a dignified bow.

Bow wow, that is. And no cracks about Washington music going to the dogs, please.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Rhys Williams is a happy actor. He just lives his own life. He doesn't worry about keeping up with the Joneses.

Rhys said: "I know there are lots of unhappy people in Hollywood but I'm not one of them."

"I can remember a good many years back when I got up at 4 a. m. to work in a factory. I can remember, too, I had to get up at 3:30 a. m. when I was foreman on a bakery route."

"Certainly working in the movies is far preferable to that sort of thing."

"What's more, screen acting is easier than either the stage or radio."

Rhys ought to know. He's done everything, tracing his stage career back to 1916.

He began his screen career in 1941 when he came out to Hollywood from Broadway for "The Corn Is Green". He's been a busy man ever since that time, a few days ago he finished a role in "Moss Rose" at 20th Century-Fox and he immediately went over to M-G-M for "Tenth Avenue Angel."

Rhys got a lot of advice when he first landed in Hollywood. Among other things he was told he should go out and rent a house at $300 or $400 a month so he'd make a big impression.

So you know what Rhys did? He rented a house for $80 a month.

Hughes Predicts His Giant Plane Will Fly This Year

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Howard Hughes predicted Tuesday his 18-million dollar flying boat, built at government expense, would fly this year.

The west coast airplane builder made his prediction to reporters as he emerged from a voluntary appearance at a closed hearing of the senate war investigating committee.

He also said that all terms of the contract by which the RFC supplied him with between 18 and 20 million dollars for the plane would be met. Hughes did not go into the details of the contract.

Chairman Brewster (R) Me., said Hughes asked to appear before the committee when he heard the contract with the government was being investigated. Brewster added that the committee investigation was not completed. He said: "We were glad to accord Mr. Hughes the privilege. We are going into the ramifications of the contracts that allowed 18 to 20 million for construction of this plane."

INVITE RUSSIANS TO ADVISE US ON DEPOSITS OF PEAT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Rep. Blatnik (D) Minn., disclosed today that five Russian engineers have been invited to Minnesota next month to give advice on development of that state's peat deposits as a source of commercial fuel.

Blatnik made the disclosure after conferring on the matter with President Truman at the White House.

The Minnesota congressman said that five American engineers, in turn, will go to Russia next summer to study Soviet methods of mining and burning the spongy fuel.

Blatnik said Russia has been notably successful in developing peat for commercial fuel. The American engineers, he added, will study Russian processes for burning a fuel of such high water content.

He said there are large deposits of peat in northern Minnesota.

Mary Churchill Married Tuesday

Daughter Of Former Prime Minister Of Britain Wed In Heatless Church

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Miss Mary Churchill, daughter of former Prime Minister Winston Churchill, was married at St. Margaret's, Westminster, Tuesday to Capt. Christopher Soames of the Coldstream Guards.

The church was packed with notables and a large crowd was gathered outside.

Although extra police were on duty, the crowd surged past cordons, cheering loudly, when Churchill arrived at the little church with his daughter.

Inside, some 800 distinguished guests shivered in the heatless church, illuminated only by four altar candles. As a concession to the occasion, authorities permitted the electric organ to be used briefly.

Politics were put aside, with Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee and other Laborite leaders attending. The bride wore white satin with a corsage of orange-blossoms. Capt. Soames was in his guard's uniform.

Two Hearings In Love Case Issues

Legal Phases Of Ownership
Of Securities And Funds
In Court Hearings

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Following a hearing before Judge W. Walker Braham Tuesday, a temporary injunction was granted the First Securities company enjoining the Union Trust company and Robert C. Love from transferring certain stock certificates for shares of the Union Trust company which are presently held in the name of Robert C. Love by the Lawrence Savings and Trust company. The stock is held as collateral for a loan of $52,500 of Mrs. Amanda Greer Love, wife of Robert C. Love, former president of the First Securities company.

The injunction proceedings arose out of action taken some weeks ago when Mr. Love was charged with embezzlement of funds of the First Securities company. Upon this charge and also that of making false statements as a corporate officer he is in the Lawrence county jail with bail set at $100,000.

Issue Attachment
The First Securities company issued attachments upon certain personal properties of Mr. Love but in the case of 192 shares of stock of the Union Trust company found that it was being held by the Lawrence Savings and Trust company as collateral for a loan. In order to stop any possible transfer of the stock the Securities company asked for the injunction. A preliminary injunction was granted with a final hearing set for March 17. It seems probable that no steps will be taken to hold up the issuance of a permanent injunction on March 17.

In the issue brought by Mrs. Amanda Greer Love asking permission to intervene in the attachment brought against a bank account in the First National Bank of Lawrence county, an issue will be framed by the court later in an interpleader proceeding. Such an action lies when two litigants lay claim to possession of property which is being held by another and which is not in the possession of the sheriff.

In this case there is a bank account in Mr. Love's name totalling $3,632.18. Mrs. Love claims most of the money represents rents collected by Mr. Love as trustee for the Greer estate and are not his personal property. The First Securities company has attached the money. The First National Bank of Lawrence county was represented in court Tuesday and a check was ready for payment to the court if such action were ordered. The interpleader will be argued after the issue is framed by the court and the matter of ownership of the bank account adjudicated.

ICE FISHERMEN?

Up to now we have never heard of much fishing being done through the ice in this county, but it looks as though it may be so. Either that or some fishermen are setting in on the ground floor in getting licenses.

In January, County Treasurer Frank W. Hill issued 133 fishing licenses, sold one hunting license and issued one free hunting license to a service man.

Also in January there were 4,382 dog licenses issued. Of these, 3,028 were for male dogs, 905 for females, 189 for spayed dogs, 24 10-dog kennel licenses and one 20-dog kennel license. In 1946 there were 9,853 dog licenses sold.

Presidential Papers Debated In Senate

Clash Occurs Over Removal Of Files And Public Records
At Washington

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Abraham Lincoln's presidential papers, a long-guarded family secret, became a subject for debate in the senate Tuesday.

The matter came up as the senate discussed the disposition of executive documents.

Sen. Ferguson (R) Mich., and Sen. Pepper (D) Fla., clashed briefly in debate over what should be done with presidential documents. Pepper interrupted Ferguson's criticism of the handling of Franklin D. Roosevelt's files to caustically say:

"If you are trying to make political capital of the Roosevelt files you might recall that the Republican Abraham Lincoln's papers haven't been made public yet. They are first going to be opened this year."

Ferguson retorted: "I am talking about the wholesale removal of public records. Lincoln removed no papers from the public files. He died in office and his papers were removed by his executors."

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Approximately 400 Pittsburgh district industrial firms today began recalling more than 50,000 furloughed workers as natural gas supplies were resumed.

Special Sentence Imposed On Man Who Killed Hunter

NEWPORT, Wash., Feb. 12.—(INS)—A court order never to bear a gun in the woods anywhere in the United States was part of the sentence faced by E. J. Brekhuis today for accidentally killing a man while he hunted deer.

Superior Court Judge Lon W. Johnson imposed sentence, put Brekhus on probation four years and ordered him to pay $3000 to the dead man's widow.

Johnson denounced special deer hunts because they gather too many hunters in a small area and said he hopes the ban on hunting for Brekhus will "make other trigger-happy hunters think twice before

Seek Ruling On Prosecutions Under Lapsed OPA Rules

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 12.—(INS)—A Supreme court ruling was sought by the Justice department today on whether violations of the lapsed OPA law still can be prosecuted.

Three cases were appealed directly from district courts to the United States Supreme court by Henry L. Hess, United States attorney for Oregon. His move was made on instructions from the Justice department in Washington, D. C.

The cases involve alleged sales of automobiles at above-ceiling prices. Two such sales allegedly took place in 1945 and the other in March, 1946.

Federal Judge Claude McCulloch dismissed the cases on the grounds that no indictment could be returned after the lapse of the price control law last June 30 for alleged violations before that time.

Policemen Stage Horse Roping Act

Policemen are versatile. They guard stores, protect people, hunt burglars and chase horses; at least, Police Sgt. and Harry Reese had an experience of the horse-catching kind at about eight a. m. today. A Lee avenue resident reported two horses had run away. Sergeant Smith radioed a scout car.

Without a rope and only on their own feet, the two policemen captured the equines and returned them to their owner.

Former Resident Of Rose Point Buried

Funeral services were held at Meadville Saturday for the late Mrs. Mary Burdette Matson of Hollywood, Fla., and former resident of Rose Point. Mrs. Matson died on February 5 after an illness.

Born in 1882, she had spent her girlhood in Rose Point.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Ross Burdett, Vogan avenue, and two other sisters, one of Conneaut, O., and one at South Hills, Ambridge, Pa.

W. S. STUART DIES
CARLISLE, Pa., Feb. 12.—(INS)—Funeral services will be held Friday for W. Seagrave Stuart, 60, of Carlisle, who resigned as a member of the State Liquor Control Board five hours before his death.

Stuart died yesterday at 4:30 p. m. at his home of kidney and heart ailments, a physician reported. He had been ill for eight months.

"The state has lost a very faithful public servant," the governor stated, "and I have lost a fine personal friend. I deeply regret his death."

Tuesday at West Washington street and Greenwood avenue. She is in the Jameson Memorial hospital. Witon reported his car skidded and struck the other auto.

Collapse Threatens Budgetary Program In Great Britain

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Dalton's entire budgetary program was seen today as threatened with imminent collapse as the fuel crisis forced Britain into its third successive day of an electrical power shutdown.

Experts predicted that growing unemployment caused by factory shutdowns and other economic dislocations allied to the coal shortage would effect a drastic reduction in national income.

The anticipated loss in revenues resulted from industrial paralysis would necessitate a complete revision of the Labor government's budget prospects.

In addition, informed diplomatic sources indicated that Prime Minister Clement Attlee may have to institute sweeping changes in his foreign policy in view of the overwhelming need for concentrating Britain's energies on solving its domestic troubles.

Fading hopes for a quick end to the fuel crisis left Dalton with only the slim chance of fulfilling his promises to cut tax rates. Declining government receipts may actually cause an upward boost in taxes.

Three Hundred Youngstown Bell Employees Out

Walkout Over Dispute Disrupts
Long Distance Service
In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 12.—(INS)—Long distance telephone service in the Youngstown district was partially disrupted when 300 operators and commercial department employees walked off their jobs today.

The walkout was touched off by a dispute between the Ohio Bell Telephone company and 277 employees of the Youngstown district plant department who failed to report to work yesterday following the transfer of two cable splicers.

Dial phones were not affected by the strike and phone company officials said that supervisory employees were handling as many long distance calls as possible.

A meeting between the company and representatives of the CIO Federation of Telephone Workers was scheduled for later today.

In addition to Youngstown, the walkout affected service at Niles, Girard, Canfield, Hubbard, Salem, North Lima, Struthers and Lowellville.

Opposition To Move To Relax Bar On Chinese

OTTAWA, Feb. 12.—(INS)—A move to relax the bar on the entry of Chinese to Canada today met vigorous opposition in the House of Commons.

The proposal would allow the entry of wives and children of Chinese now residents of Canada and who are Canadian citizens.

Opposition to the measure was headed by members from British Columbia who have consistently opposed the entry of any orientals into Canada on the grounds that they all settle on the west coast.

Sharon Teachers Ask For $600 Pay Raise

SHARON, Feb. 12.—Sharon branch of the P. S. E. A. today asked the local school board for salary increases of $600 a year for the 173 teachers and other professional employees of the school district or just double the raise of $300 that they had originally asked.

At the time of the petition for the $300 raise the board promised some action as soon as funds were available from 1947 taxes.

Installing Radar Control System

Allegheny County Airport To Be Equipped With Radar Control
System At Once

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 12.—(INS)—
Installation of one of the first radar control systems in Pennsylvania will begin today at the Allegheny County airport, Pittsburgh's principal air terminal.

The radar device will aid airport control operators to accurately trace all planes within a 30-mile radius in any kind of weather. It will also permit operations, including landings and take-offs, during periods when flights would normally be grounded.

The system will be furnished and installed by the Civil Aeronautics Administration.

Synagogue Fire In Philadelphia; Loss $250,000

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—(INS)—
Damage was estimated at $250,000 today in the wake of a fire which swept the Har Zion synagogue in Philadelphia.

The synagogue's main temple altar was wrecked and valuable scrolls and silverware were badly damaged.
Some 300 boys and girls filled out of the building in orderly fashion when the flames broke out under the altar and spread rapidly to the auditorium below the stage on which the altar was mounted.

Included in the damage was the destruction of a $35,000 organ. Extensive stained-glass windows buckled under the intense heat.

Cause of the fire was not known.

Grill Woman In Escape Of Convicts

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 12.—(INS)—
Quaker City police held an unidentified woman today for further questioning in the escape of five convicts from Holmesburg county prison on Monday.

Three of the prisoners were recaptured within a few hours, but two of them—William (Slick Willie)
Sutton, a lifer, and Fred (The Ance)
Temuto, serving 20-40 years for murder—are still free.

Police grilled the young woman,
reportedly a girl friend of Spencer
Walden, 41, one of the re-captured convicts. Walden is serving a 15-20 year term for robbery.

According to reports, police were attempting to discover how a revolver was smuggled to Walden. The weapon enabled the convicts to engineer their escape over a 35-foot high wall of the prison.

We are pleased to announce that with the moderating weather the critical gas supply situation has been considerably improved.

Gas pressures in our lines have been built up again substantially.

Both domestic and commercial users now have normal supply of gas and it will not be long before industrial users will also have gas service again.

To all who co-operated with us during the past few days by postponing their laundry, by limiting their use of hot water, and by conserving gas in many other ways, we want to express our sincerest thanks.

Your co-operation has helped us immeasurably over a very critical period.

New Castle High Quintet Loses At Aliquippa 50 To 40

Indians Assume Loop Leadership Result Of Win

Don Watters Plays Brilliant Game Until Injured In Third Period

MEET ERIE STRONG VINCENT FRIDAY

New Castle High's "Whiz Kids" bowed to the inevitable last night at Aliquippa—too much height, and consequently were forced to accept a 50 to 40 defeat at the hands of the league-leading Indians, although they played a fine game all the way and had the Indians worried every minute.

Beaver Falls having dumped Sharon Tigers, 32 to 31, at Beaver Falls, gives the Lippe-coached Quips the leadership today with seven wins and one defeat. Sharon has won seven and lost two. Beaver Falls defeated Ambridge, 47 to 40, to stay in the race, with six wins and two defeats.

New Castle's section standing is now three wins and six defeats, not bad in this man's section, and two of those defeats were by one point, to Beaver Falls and Farrell.

Watters Brilliant
Unmindful of the fact that Aliquippa had beaten them at New Castle earlier in the season, 39 to 21, the "Whiz Kids" went to work in the first period and grabbed themselves the lead at 11 to 7, with Donnie Watters flipping in three field goals in a great exhibition. Young Watters played the best game of his career last night, getting a nine point, and was a beacon on defense.

New Castle definitely suffered a loss in the third period when Watters and Black collided in midcourt and Watters suffered a nose injury that necessitated his being taken out. Watters was getting the ball on the rebounds from such tall boys as Cable and Sudar repeatedly and his absence from the game was keenly felt. He did get back in the final minutes of the game, but the Indians had too big a lead.

Indians Lead at Half
Aliquippa took the lead at the halfway mark, 20 to 17, outscoring New Castle, 13 to 6, in the second canto. Cable and Zugay were the thorns in the side of the locals in this period.

Gribble, a sub for Watters, had the only field goal for New Castle in the second period. The Indians, after trailing the first period, were "hopping mad" in the second stanza.

Third Period Close
Play was close and hard fought in the third period, Aliquippa outscoring New Castle this session 11 to 10 to lead 31 to 27 as the third period closed. Chuck Rea was the New Castle star in the third stanza with three field goals and a foul for seven of the 10 points. Tate had two points and Black one. The Indians took advantage of Watters being out of the lineup in the final period and ran up 19 points to 13 for New Castle, with Woods, a sub for Cerevela, getting three field goals and giving the Lippemmen their advantage. Black and Spears were the New Castle stars in the final session, with two field goals apiece, the latter incidentally being high man for the New Castle team with 10 points, while Black was covered close and managed to get six points.

Meet Eric Friday
Cerevela with 11 points was the Aliquippa scoring star, followed by Cable and Zugay. In foul tossing New Castle made 12 out of 17 for a fine percentage, Aliquippa making 10 out of 18.

New Castle will be idle in the section Friday but will play a non-league affair with Erie Strong Vincent at Washington floor. New Castle is going to start priming for the big battle next Tuesday with Sharon Tigers appearing here.

In the preliminary game last night the Aliquippa Jayvees defeated New Castle Jayvees 49 to 27.

Titans-W. & J. Battle Tonight

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 12.—This college town is excited today with the prospect of seeing a great battle at the Westminster gym tonight as the highly touted W. and J. President appear here to battle the Titans. The main game will follow a preliminary set for 7 o'clock.

W. and J. with a record of eight wins and one defeat—that to Army recently 52-40—will try to break the Titans home record of wins for the first time since 1942. Westminster will be after its 16th win of the year against two reverses.

Scoring Duel Tonight
A great scoring duel will no doubt take place tonight between Chuckling Chet Dembinski, the Westminster scoring star and Hank Knoche, the W. and J. ace, who has 176 points to 228 for Dembinski. Knoche stands seventh in scoring. McIlhinney and Heddeleston, also high among the Tri-State scorers hope to increase their points tonight.

A packed gym will see the teams square off tonight. It is indicated with standing room at a premium.

Wampum Preserves Win Streak, 44-43

Indians Take Close Game From Fighting Union High Scotties In Vital Battle

(Special To The News)
WAMPUM, Feb. 12.—Wampum remained undefeated in Section 21 today, but only after they had their war-paint scared off their last night here by Union—the game ended 44-43.

Bouncing along in fine fashion at the end of the third period and leading, 35-26, the Redskins suddenly found themselves in the middle of a nightmare as the doughty Patterson lads gained control of the ball and began dumping in points from all angles.

The Henon lads, with three minutes remaining on the clock, confidently froze the leather but made the error of trying one more shot. Union scooped the rebound and was off to the races. Conti and Rotunno fired away with uncanny accuracy and when the smoke had cleared the locals were plenty glad the buzzer had sounded while that one-point lead remained on the score board.

The win was the eighth in a row for the Indians and propels them further along the road to the section title. The defeat eliminates Union from any chance they may have had at snatching the crown.

MUCH has been said and written of Mike Jacobs, the Mr. Big of Boxing, and who, while out of a hospital, may never again participate in a million dollar punch drama. It is possibly true that Mike has a monopoly on the fistie cream of the nation, but no one can condemn him for wanting a return on one, foresight told him the said human was worth a financial investment. Mike succeeded the late Tex Rickard, a picturesque character of his day, but according to Jack Kearns, Jacobs outranked Rickard as a promoter of the Cauliflower industry. Recently Jack Kearns, the gent who put Jack Dempsey out in front, claimed Jacobs as the No. 1 promoter of all time, saying to Guy Butler of the Miami Daily News: "He has done a lot for boxing. Tex Rickard—and don't forget Tex gave Dempsey and me our big opportunities—couldn't touch Mike, even if Mike did come along under Rickard as master of the ticket business. Sure, Rickard had the first million dollar gate, and several of them—with Dempsey, but Jacobs has drawn 'em big, too, and has put on many, many more promotions than Tex ever dreamed of. Successfully, too. Jacobs does things for the fighters. He advances them money, finances them, keeps them busy—keeps the fight game going. Rickard didn't do that. Yes, indeed, I think Mike is entitled to what he's made out of boxing and that is rightfully the No. 1 impressario in all history." Kearns then unfurled more pugilistic history by saying that, Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City, rendered yeoman service to boxing in the days of Dempsey and Georges Carpentier. "He got Boyle's Thirty Acres for Rickard and was instrumental in having the arena built. Not only that but Carpentier was a little tough to sign and Hague used his influence to land the champion for the 1921 bout." Kearns relates that Boyle's Thirty Acres was never worth much after that. Jess Willard fought Louis Firpo there and that was about all—two fights. The historic arena long ago was dismantled.

George Bolinger, secretary of the Sportsman's Council of Lawrence County, said today he expects a full attendance of delegates from affiliated clubs at the council's meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the Y. Final disposition of charges against the state game commission will be made, prior to the Federation of Sportsmen's meeting at Harrisburg, this week-end.

Game Is Thriller At Greyhound Court As Wildcats Emerge Victorious, 39-38

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 12.—New Wilmington's Greyhounds New Wilmington's Greyhounds threw a healthy scare into the visiting Shenango Wildcats here last night before going down to a 39-38 defeat in a real thriller.

The Eagleson-coached lads matched the Cats almost point for point during the first half, trailing by a lone point, 21-20 at the intermission. In the third frame, however, the Greyhounds faltered, being unable to tally a marker while the Nahans quit ran up 10.

Undaunted, the home team came back strong in the wind-up canto pouring in 18 to the Wildcats eight but their great rally was in vain. Ronny Johns played brilliantly for the Wildcats, banking in 19 points, while Don "Stretch" Mayberry hit the nets for 10. Hartwell was high for the Greyhounds with nine.

Housing Expediter Cuts Staff Down

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Housing Expediter Frank R. Creedon trimmed his staff of 1,150 by one-third today to "streamline" its operations.

He explained that the housing program has now "crystallized," removing the need for a large organization. The 400 workers dismissed were given 30-day notices.

Creedon credited the groundwork done last year by former Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt with helping to make possible the slash in personnel. Recent removal and simplification of the strict housing controls instituted under Wyatt also were partly responsible for the cut.

The expediter gave reporters this summary of the housing situation: Prices on new homes—they have stopped their upward climb. But there is no prospect of an early return trip downward. High labor and materials costs are to blame.

In 1935-39, India exported an average of 330 million pounds of tea annually, accounting for 39 per cent of the world total.

Gas-Oil Dealers Organize Tuesday

Name William Watters President
Of Association Of Dealers
Here

Gasoline and oil dealers of New Castle and adjoining townships organized Tuesday night when a meeting of dealers was held in The Castleton hotel. William Watters was named president; Jack Fulkerson, vice president; Edward Wallace, secretary; and Richard Marquis, treasurer.

The purpose of the association is to improve the standards of service, to aid in the solution of problems common to all the dealers, and to promote better understanding.

The idea was suggested some weeks ago and since then the dealers have been working towards the point of organization. This was consummated Tuesday night. A constitution and by-laws will be adopted later, committees appointed and before long it is hoped to include in the association all dealers engaged in the sale of gasoline, oil and automobile accessories.

FEEDING CALVES YEAST HELPS PREVENT RICKETS

Rickets, a nutritional disease prevalent among calves which get insufficient vitamin D in their rations, can be checked or corrected by making up this deficiency through feeding irradiated yeast.

Yeast added at the rate of 1½ pounds per ton of grain provides sufficient vitamin D for normal growth and development in calves, and can be fed until the calves are 10 months old or longer.

Adding yeast to the diet not only corrects the rachitic condition, but also encourages more rapid growth. Calves develop at less cost and grow into more desirable animals.

When vitamin D is low in the diet insufficient lime is deposited in the bones, with the result they become soft and deformed. Afflicted calves stand around with dropped heads and arched backs.

In winter the only natural source of vitamin D is hay, and unless this is of excellent quality it may need to be supplemented by mixing yeast with the grain feed.

Spur Victory Stamp Sales At Thaddeus

Friendly rivalry exists at the Thaddeus Stevens grade school on the east side in the purchase of victory stamps and bonds.

Peter Crittie, assistant principal and chairman of the school's bond and stamp campaign, announced that a special contest is being waged at the present time. Already 62 of the school children belong to the S. A. B. club (save and buy bonds) with a number belonging to the three plus one club, indicating they have bought bonds.

The school is all agog for the celebration of valentine day. Most of the rooms have neat valentine boxes that have been made by the boys and girls. Friday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock, the annual valentine party will take place when the valentines will be distributed and refreshments will be served.

The Gra-Y athletic organization of the school is planning for the annual bean dinner which will be an event of Friday evening at the Y. M. C. A. The health studies of the school under the supervision of Mrs. Ruth Myers, presented recently an interesting program, in which health rules were dramatized. Original health rhymes were enacted.

AMERICANS HAVE HUGE "NEST EGG"

CHICAGO, Feb. 12.—(INS)—Americans believe in "rainy days" to the tune of three hundred billion dollars. This attitude of self security came to light today with the announcement by the Research Council for Economic Security that the American people have compiled a rainy day "nest egg" approximating that amount.

The council said almost all of the adult population has a square share in the "nest egg" through savings of 175 billion; privately owned real estate of 60 billion; investments of 30 billion; and life insurance, the actual cash value of which is 40 billions.
